

Grade 3 News

I hope that everyone had a wonderful weekend! It was nice to see everyone at Mass and Open House yesterday! What a wonderful way to kick off Catholic Schools Week!

We have many things going on for Catholic Schools Week!

Monday~ Spirit Day

Tuesday~ Dress as your favorite book character day, and guest readers will read in the classrooms.

Wednesday~ Board games with prayer partners...We have to bring in a game to play with our partners!

Talent show at 1:00 P.M.

Thursday~ prayer service and Wheel of Wisdom

Friday~ No School!

Have a wonderful Catholic Schools week!

This week in...

Religion

As we celebrate Catholic Schools week, we will be reminding ourselves why it is important to celebrate the Good News. We will also study the sacraments this week.

Math

We continue to work with division! We are working on dividing by 10 and 12. Please continue to work on the facts at home every night! Thank you! It really does help tremendously!

Spelling

We are studying Unit 19 in spelling this week. We are studying homophones, and we will review word analogies. The test on Friday will include the two challenge words in the test, and we will have an additional two challenge words for bonus points.

We will have a test on unit 19 on Thursday.

Language Arts

We are learning about adjectives this week. How do these words make our writing more interesting?

Social Studies

We are studying government. We will learn about local, state, and federal government, jobs included at each level, and what each role requires.

Science

We are studying simple machines this week. How do these tools make work easier?

Grade Three

January 30, 2012

Reading

We have begun our next book in our reading series. Our first reading selection is The Terrible Eek. We will use a sequence chart to describe the flow of the story, and to strengthen our comprehension skills.

Vocab words for this week are: completely, humans, meal, motion, reply, and weight.

We will take a test covering The Terrible Eek on Thursday.

